

Earthquake Causes Damage in Indonesia

A 5.9-magnitude earthquake struck 37 kilometers under Aceh Province of the island of Sumatra. The tremor, followed by a 4.7-magnitude aftershock, pounded an area where 71 homes were damaged and one death along with 15 injuries occurred.