

A 6.5 Quake Took Place in Northern Chile

An earthquake scaled at 6.5 struck the territory of Chile, with the epicenter situated north of the City Calama. The quake occurred around noon, lasting for a minute; so far no casualties and major destruction have been reported. According to the observatory agency in Chile, no tsunami was triggered by the earthquake.