

Follow-up to Devastating Inundation in South Korea

Immense downpour at its peak Thursday the 28th, has abated on the following day. The most recent report on tolls released by the Central Disaster Relief Agency has come to 51. The torrential rain put around 116,000 homes without power; but the officials had restored the electricity later.